

 Zatchels

Lovingly Handmade in England

Founded in 2011 on the back of years of experience as a traditional leather goods manufacturer, Zatchels is a modern British accessories brand that has a handwriting which offers fun, colour and the latest fashion styling in equal measure.

Zatchels aims to offer high quality leather products to customers with a lifetime guarantee. Every bag Zatchels makes has its own individual bag number and certificate of authenticity. The craftspeople who make the bags have a minimum of 15 years experience and still use some of the oldest known saddlery skills surviving today, including using a riveter that is over 100 years old to hand rivet the bags and even hand fold and glue the Zatchels label by hand, making Zatchels a truly handmade product.

Zatchels currently sells through over 130 wholesale accounts in the UK and has its own bricks and mortar stores in London's Westfield, Bath, York, Braintree, Leicester and regular pop up shops at Bicester Village.

Apart from the UK, Zatchels is loved by international fans and boasts a stockist list that spans Japan, Germany, Italy and Russia . Zatchels currently trades in over 90 locations in 15 countries and has plans to grow the network of bricks and mortar store to over 20 in the coming years both in the UK and internationally.

HRH The Princess Royal, President of the UK Fashion and Textile Association, visited Zatchels at their Charter Street factory in Leicester on Thursday 18 December 2014. During the visit, HRH The Princess Royal met with Zatchels' joint founders, and was introduced to Zatchels' employees and key suppliers.

In her role as President of UKFT, HRH The Princess Royal made only two visits in 2014 to UK fashion and textile members, which makes this Zatchels visit an important part of the UKFT calendar.
