

Ulster Est. 1880 Weavers

Spring/Summer 2022

Enriching homes and lives everywhere.

Our new catalogue marks a time of change and renewal. With this edition, that's truer than ever, as we unveil our new brand identity and new direction for Ulster Weavers into the future.

Ulster Weavers is a quality textile homewares manufacturer rooted in Northern Ireland's fine linen heritage. We believe that home is a feeling, not a location. It's a sense of calm and connectedness, bound up in identity, nostalgia, and belonging. Home is a constant in a changing world that nonetheless exists in countless places. It lives in our daily rituals and everyday items and persists in the things that survive moving days and life edits.

Our purpose is to enrich homes and lives everywhere. Our designers use authentic materials, sustainable practices, and time-honoured methods to create our collections. In this way, our contemporary kitchen textile and table linen collections connect traditional craftsmanship with the latest trends – appealing to homemakers from all generations. It is all part of our vision to bring inspiration and craftsmanship to every home in the world.

We hope you enjoy exploring our new collections – thoughtfully made products designed and crafted to awaken that feeling of home, wherever you are, and whatever you are doing.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Gillian McLean". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

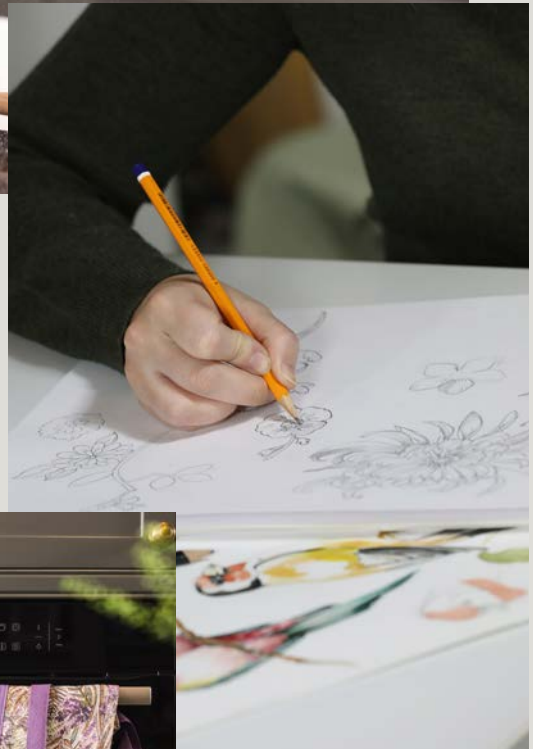

Gillian McLean
Managing Director

Lovingly crafted, thoughtfully made.

At Ulster Weavers, our vision is to bring inspiration and craftsmanship to every home in the world, rooted in our purpose to enrich homes and lives everywhere. For over 140 years, we have been synonymous with producing high-quality and durable products that stand the test of time, products crafted with care, using time-honoured methods that reinforce the rich textile tradition for which we have become famous.

We lovingly craft products that are both contemporary and rustic under our Ulster Weavers brand, and as part of a customised service – all thoughtfully made.

Eco-conscious.

Ulster Weavers is embarking on an ambitious growth journey, anchored by sustainability.

Our brand is steeped in heritage. We recognise that our founding principles, which blend time-honoured production techniques with durable, natural, and ethically sourced linen textiles, can continue to be a force for good in a fragile world. Sustainability is in our roots.

For over 140 years, we have brought craftsmanship to homes around the world. Now is the time for us to lay a foundation that protects those roots, for the future of the business, the environment, and the communities in which we operate, minimising, if not eliminating or off-setting, our environmental impact. People, product, and planet – these 3 pillars underscore our commitment to adapting to new and innovative ways of working so that we can reduce carbon emissions, the amount of waste sent to landfill, and our consumption of virgin materials.

Causeway Geo

Our Causeway Geo collection, created by textile designer Jennie, tames the geological phenomenon of the North Coast, and the energy of the wild North Atlantic, in a range that harmonises the tranquillity of the modern home, and forces of the natural world.

Causeway Geo

Bold geometric lines and contemporary reimagining of the iconic hexagonal basalt columns of the Giant's Causeway, converge with the ribbed waves of Atlantic swells.

7COAST01
Cotton Apron

Curves and contours bring movement to the collection, reflecting the openness of the environment, allowing the designs to breathe.

Its colour palette blends maritime-inspired tones, capturing a refreshing and rejuvenating feel with shades of blue and grey, resembling the wild Atlantic coastline, contrasting with the burnt orange accents of the distant setting sun.

Murlough

Taking its inspiration from Murlough Bay, where the Mourne Mountains meet the Irish Sea, our Murlough collection, created by textile designer Jennie, captures the essence of the scenic Northern Irish coastline, where land and sea converge.

Murlough

A fresh twist on traditional stripes and checks, the rolling sand dunes and wild grasses of the extraordinary vista inspire the impressionistic brush strokes and smudged patterns that reflect a living, breathing landscape.

Its textured feel is reminiscent of the changing topography of the bay and celebrates Ireland's rich tradition of checked and woven textiles.

Neutral earthy mineral tones showcased through the watercolour effect create a calming aesthetic that reconnects people and place.

Mourne Heather

Influenced by the foliage of the dramatic Mourne Mountains, our Mourne Heather collection, created by textile designer Helena, discovers the natural vibrancy of Northern Ireland's breathtaking landscape, in a range that amplifies colour and celebrates biodiversity.

Mourne Heather

Upland vegetation – shrubs and heathers, ferns, and grasses – blend to form a seamless pattern of alpine and heathland flora that invokes a rustic charm.

7MOURNE02
Gauntlet

An expressive, hand-drawn design uplifts the beauty of Northern Ireland's flora, with visible pen and pencil strokes that emphasise the heterogeneity of the landscape.

Its cream and brown notes paired with purple, green and grey hues encapsulate the richness of the uplands and transport us to rural County Down.

BBQ

Become 'King of the Grill' this summer.

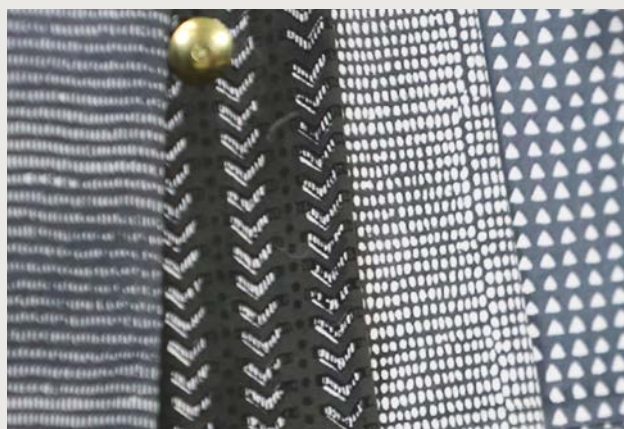

Our sumptuous and contemporary selection of barbeque aprons, tea towels and cloths will tempt everyone into the great outdoors this spring and summer.

Sperrin BBQ

Our Sperrin collection, created by textile designer Hannah, pays homage to the undulating hills and valleys of Northern Ireland's Sperrin mountains, in a range that reflects the unspoilt beauty of the landscape.

7SPERRINO1
Cotton BBQ Apron

Its unrefined aesthetic, achieved through abstract mark-making techniques, symbolises the untouched scenery of the mountain range.

Subtle colour and pattern give the collection a natural look and feel with mossy green tones, influenced by the landscape, creating an understated camouflage that elevates the tasteful collection to heights in keeping with its inspiration.

This simple, modern design has the minimalist in mind and is ideal for homes with pared-down décor.

Top Dog BBQ

A fun departure from our landscape-inspired collections, Top Dog, created by textile designer Hannah, is an attention-grabbing and comical collection designed to be a perfect accompaniment for the relaxed atmosphere of the summer's day barbeque.

7TDOG01
Cotton BBQ Apron

Tonal greys emphasise our leading puppy with bursts of yellow and red to elevate the motif.

Its novelty message, complemented by a clean design, guarantees its appeal for all the family, though the dog of the house might bark otherwise!

From doting dog owners to the father fond of his trademark dad jokes, Top Dog makes the perfect gift for barbeque connoisseurs alike.

Sustainable Cleaning

Linen cloths are an eco-friendly, long lasting, and sustainable way to clean your home or wash your dishes. Highly absorbent and machine washable, they last much longer than your sponge or blue cloth and contain no plastics.

Thanks to linen's hollow fibres, it remains fast-drying, extremely absorbent and lint-free, meaning unwanted fluff won't be left on your kitchen surfaces.

A vibrant green and black patterned fabric, possibly a bag or a piece of clothing, is draped over a dark surface. The fabric features a bold, abstract pattern of green and black stripes and geometric shapes. A white rectangular label with the word "Bags" in a serif font is positioned in the upper left corner of the image. The background is a dark, solid color, and a small portion of a wooden object is visible in the top right corner.
